McKnight Doctoral Fellowship @ UF

DEADLINE TO APPLY: January 15

ABOUT
The Office of Graduate Diversity Initiatives, in partnership with the Florida Education Fund (FEF), administers the McKnight Doctoral Fellowship for African-American and Hispanic students. The program is designed to increase the number of African-American and Hispanic faculty in the state of Florida.

PROGRAM BENEFITS AND FEATURES
- Base annual stipend of $26,080
- In-State Tuition
- Fee Waiver
- Health Insurance
- The McKnight Doctoral Fellowship is offered for up to 5 years

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS
- Applicants must be US citizens admitted to a University of Florida Ph.D. program and entering the first year of that program.
- Applications must be submitted directly to the Florida Education Fund before January 15 to compete for funding opportunities the following fall.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:
Florida Education Fund, Inc.
Phone: 813-272-2772 or Email: mdf@fefonline.org
www.fefonline.org