

GSAW Professional Development Day

Join the Career Resource Center and the Graduate School for a mini-conference focused on the unique career and professional development needs of graduate and international students. Choose from panels featuring alternative-academic career paths, job searching workshops, or sessions to help you improve your graduate school experience while networking with peers and professionals. Livestreaming and recording options are available upon completing registration.

- Date: April 5th, 2017
- Location: Reitz Union Ground Floor, Check-In at Chamber Room
- Time: 1pm-5:30pm (Check-In Begins at 12:30pm)

Opening and Keynote (1:00pm-1:30pm)

- Innovating Your Career with Dr. David Mazyck, Environmental Engineering

Session 1 (1:30pm-2:20pm)

- International Students and the Job Search
(Sponsored by UF International Initiatives Team)
- Managing Advisor Relationships Panel
(Sponsored by Graduate Student Council)
- Salary Negotiation

Session 2 (2:30pm-3:20pm)

- Teaching Portfolio Exposition
(Sponsored by Faculty Development and Teaching Excellence)
- Funding for International Students
- Job Searching Outside of Academia

Session 3 (3:30pm-4:20pm)

- Industry Experts for International Students Panel
- Careers in Data Analysis Workshop
(Sponsored by Organization for Graduate Advancement and Professional Development)
- Myers Briggs Typology Interpretation and Discussion (MUST register to attend)
- Careers in Journalism Panel
(Sponsored by Florida Society for Social Sciences)

Closing and Networking Session (4:30pm-5:30pm)

LinkedIn Headshots and Attire Available
(Sponsored by Gator Career Closet)

Snacks and Raffles will be provided.

