

Spring 2019

Professional Development Workshop Series

Jan. 23	Electronic Thesis and Dissertation Submission Stacy Wallace, Graduate Editorial Office 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
Jan. 30	Who is Getting Hired and How to be that Person Dr. James Estrada, Center for Stress Resilient Agriculture 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
Feb. 06	Pathways to Teaching Excellence Alexandra Bitton-Bailey, Faculty Development & Teaching Excellence 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
Feb. 13	How to Become an Expert in Your Field Dr. David Schwieder, Library West 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
Feb. 27	Gen X to Gen Z: Navigating Generational Differences in the Workplace Dr. Lindsay Lynch, Human Development and Organizational Studies in Education 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
March 13	Scholars Speaking to the Public in the Age of Internet Noise Dr. Kevin Folta, Horticultural Sciences 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
March 20	Effective Poster Presentations Dr. Diana Nagy, Dial Center for Written and Oral Communication 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
March 27	Leading from the Middle: Leadership Style and Strategy for Young Professionals Dr. Lindsay Lynch, Human Development and Organizational Studies in Education 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
April 04	Opportunities for International Engagement Dr. Emilia Hodge, Office of Graduate International Outreach 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
April 10	The Non-Academic Job Search Lindsay Day, InfoTech 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007
April 17	Networking and Building Professional Connections for Graduate Students Allie Simon, Career Connections Center 3:30pm-4:30pm, Turlington Hall L007

Visit goo.gl/xkef1t for instructions on how to register for the spring workshop series.