GAINESVILLE
A PLACE TO LIVE AND LEARN

Gainesville is a crossroads where nature and culture, down-home roots and international diversity, affordable living and personal enrichment, all intersect in the heart of north central Florida.

It’s a habitat where you can explore the great outdoors at a bevy of hiking trails, parks, lakes, rivers and springs.

It’s an incubator where you can stimulate your mind and imagination at local museums, theaters, art galleries and music venues.

It’s a smorgasbord where you can sate your appetite at a wide variety of restaurants featuring worldwide and world-class cuisines.

And it’s an arena where you can and cheer on the hometown team or get in the action at any number of athletic and recreational facilities.

To discover just what Gainesville has to offer outside the classroom or laboratory, check out these links:

As an added bonus, Gainesville is but an hour-plus drive from Florida’s Atlantic and Gulf Coast beaches, as well within convenient reach of major urban hubs and tourist attractions Orlando, Tampa, Jacksonville, Tallahassee and Miami.
UNLOCK THE GATEWAY TO YOUR FUTURE
APPLY FOR GRADUATE ADMISSION TO THE UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA TODAY!

1. Contact the academic unit to which you wish to apply for deadlines and specific application requirements: graduateschool.ufl.edu/faculty--staff/resources/graduate-contacts.

2. Read the graduate admission requirements on the UF Office of Admissions website: admissions.ufl.edu/apply/graduate.

3. Read the graduate application instructions on the UF Office of Admission website: admissions.ufl.edu/apply/graduate/graduateapp.

4. Submit your graduate application, application fee, personal statement and recommendation letters online: student.ufl.edu/cgi-bin/eaglec?page=IGA-INTRO.

5. Have your testing agency send your GRE or GMAT scores to UF (Institution Code 5812). Non-US and Puerto Rican applicants must also submit IELTS, MELAB, Internet-Based TOEFL or Paper-Based TOEFL scores. (TOEFL ITP scores are not acceptable.)

6. Have your transcripts and academic credentials from all prior institutions listed on your application (along with certified translations for documents not in English) sent to: UF Office of Admissions, POB 114000, Gainesville FL 32611-4000.

7. Send any other materials required by your desired degree program directly to that academic unit.

The academic unit of your desired degree program will then review your application packet, make a decision and notify you of it by letter or e-mail. Neither the UF Graduate School nor the UF Office of Admissions is involved in that decision, so please check with the academic unit for updates.
The UF Graduate School is a service-driven team whose purpose is to help our coworkers across campus — colleges, departments and graduate degree programs — to usher you from admission to graduation with administrative, funding and mentoring support.

Administration coordinates policies and procedures to ensure the integrity, thoroughness and value of your graduate education experience at UF.

Data Management harnesses information, statistics and technology to run GIMS (Graduate Information Management System) — a robust online tool for tracking your progress in your degree program.

Editorial sees you through the process of finishing, formatting and submitting your thesis or dissertation — and also maintains UF’s graduate catalog.

Graduate Student Affairs offers a variety of services and programs to enhance your personal growth and academic success as part of UF’s graduate student body:

- Graduate Diversity Initiatives fosters inclusiveness by recruiting, mentoring and advocating for underrepresented students within the campus community.
- Graduate International Outreach spearheads global recruitment efforts and builds worldwide links with higher education overseas.
- Graduate Professional Development offers opportunities to hone academic, personal care and career-building skills.

Student Records monitors your academic progress and certifies your fulfillment of all graduation requirements at the end of your graduate education experience.
