

Research Project Thesis Development

My research topic/subject is:

In one sentence, my original research should be described in this way:

The proposition that my research seeks to prove is:

My research seeks to substantiate this specific view/perspective/outlook:

The position advocated in my original research is...

The key premise/claim upon which I can build a sound argument is...

What question(s) may need to be answered by your research?